

Celebrate the Fourth at Hopewell Furnace National Historic Site

Join us at the Park (2 Mark Bird Lane Elverson, PA)
for our annual celebration of Independence Day

Event is free and family friendly

Ceremonies begin at 2 PM on the steps of the Ironmaster's mansion porch

Musical performances and presentation of the colors by local scout troops

Winners of the Essay contest [“What does Liberty mean to you?”] from local middle and high schools will read their submissions.

The Friends of Hopewell Furnace sponsor the prizes.

A special reading of the Declaration of Independence, where members of the audience will be invited to take part.

Other Activities

11 am, 1 pm and 3 pm Aluminum casting demonstrations in the cast house
Living History Demonstrations: bake oven, blacksmith shop, and fiber arts.

Children's tent with crafts, activities, and historic games